ONWARD NAZI CHRISTIAN SOLDIERS

"Ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky and of the earth; but how is it ye do not discern this time? [1]

When was the last time the reader was instructed as to the significance of the Nazi Holocaust? How are we to interpret the innumerable atrocities and unspeakable crimes against humanity committed only one generation ago? First, we must look back into the annals of Church history. It is there the horror begins.

FOURTH LATERAN COUNCIL DECREES AGAINST JEWS, A. D. 1215 [2]

37. No Hebrew is allowed to dwell out of the Ghetto as for a change of air, and when they have to go out even for a single day, they must get the necessary license....."

These few quotations from official Roman Catholic documents should give the reader an inkling of the persecuting spirit which drove the Church against the Jewish people, as it did against the true saints of God. There are numerous decrees which we can see are the bedrock and foundation of the Nazi persecution of the Jews in this century. But before we discuss the issue of Nazi persecution, let us look at the Spanish Inquisition against the 'New Christians' who dared backslide.

In the Roman Catholic Church's zeal to baptize the Jews of Spain, thereby 'converting' them by means of holy water, the Church made it advantageous to those who 'made a decision for Christ.'

"No longer shunned or forced to earn their living by money-lending or medicine alone, conversos were able to enter all professions to which access, until then, had been difficult."<sup>[4]</sup>

As we have shown in the Fourth Lateran Council decrees above, Jews who integrated Judaism into their Roman Catholicism were to 'be prevented by the prelates,' i.e., bishops and inquisitors. Accusations of Judaising were dealt with harshly: property was confiscated, jobs were lost, unrepentant were burned. This became, therefore, a golden opportunity for the Jews' wealth to be spread among the Gentiles, legally. For the reader to grasp a sense of how the Catholic Church operated against the Jews during the 15th century Inquisition, the following is a translation of a sentence passed upon a Judaising 'New Christian' by the inquisition tribunal of Ciudad Real in 1484.<sup>[5]</sup>

SENTENCE VERSUS JUAN GONZALES PINTADO, FEBRUARY 23, 1484

"Witnessed by Pero Diaz de la Costna, Lawyer of Holy Theology, and Francisco Sanchez de la Fuente, Doctor of Canon Law, Inquisitor Judges by Apostolic Authority, and myself, attorney Pero Diaz, an official and Vicar-General of this Archbischopric of Toledo by the Reverend Lord Don Pedro Gonzalez de Mendoza, Cardinal of Spain, Archbishop of Toledo.

The litigation before us has been a struggle between the following parties: the honorable Ferdinand Rodriguez del Barco, clergyman and chaplain of our lord the King, Steward of Finance, and one Juan Gonzalez Pintado, councilman, and resident of Ciudad Real. This suit is the result of an accusation by the Steward of Finance [the Roman Catholic priest] against the aforesaid Juan Gonzalez whereby Senor Gonzalez is alleged to have fallen away from the Holy Catholic Faith by keeping the Mosaic Law and rituals, this despite having openly professed Christianity by assuming a Christian name.

THE CHARGES AGAINST SENOR GONZALEZ

"Senor Gonzalez is accused of burning holy candles Friday evenings for the Jewish Sabbath; cooking on Friday for the Saturday meal, and eating from the same skillet in which the food had been cooked; dressing in clean clothes on the Jewish Sabbath as Christians usually dress on Sunday; eating meat with Jewish solemnity; eating beef and eggs on Lent without cause, in addition to performing other Jewish ceremonies in his house.

For these crimes Senor Gonzalez is accused of committing heresy and of being a heretic, then and now.

GONZALEZ UNREPENTANT DENYING GUILT

"I have seen Juan Gonzalez deny the accusations and bring forth his defense with his arguments and witnesses.....and afterward to continue to deny his guilt. He has refused to acknowledge his errors throughout the entire Judicial process.....His continued denial and lack of guilt for his profane sins leaves no possibility for true repentance and contrition which would have satisfied our Savior Jesus Christ, to whom he had done wrong. [i.e., he injured the Divine Majesty, as did the Albigenses and Waldenses.]

SENTENCE HANDED DOWN

"Thus, after having taken counsel, reviewing the law with religious persons of science and conscience, with whom I have been in communication throughout this trial, and having our Savior Jesus Christ always before our eyes:

We believe the aforesaid Steward of Finance's accusations against the defendant, Juan Gonzalez Pintador, to be well founded. Therefore, we pronounce and declare the defendant, Juan Gonzalez Pintador, councilman, guilty of heresy and apostasy, incurring a sentence of major excommunication and all other spiritual and temporal penalties, including the loss and confiscation of his assets. Thus, we relax and now do relax the aforesaid to the most illustrious gentleman, Juan Peres de Barradas, Magistrate of this city and territory for the King and Queen, our lords, and for our governors and judges. He is to proceed against the guilty party by our authority and not to fall in doing so."

The term relax is a Roman Catholic ecclesiastical euphemism for extermination by fire. To relax is to 'loose.' To loose is the opposite of 'bind.' Binding and loosing are symbolized by the keys of authority and power given the Church by Jesus. To loose should mean 'set free.' However, in twisted Catholic terminology relax, i.e., loose, instead means 'execution.' Not much freedom in that, is there? The Roman Catholic prelates and their Beast justify their pious position for never having shed blood themselves by invoking the technicality that the secular Roman Catholic magistrates did their dirty work for them. This is exactly what occurred when the religious rulers of Israel handed Jesus over to the Roman authorities for execution. According to the Lord, however, the ones who delivered him up to Pilate retained a greater share of the guilt for murdering Him.

For the Steward of Finance to have accused Mr. Gonzalez of the above cited crimes, he must have been a close, personal friend. Only someone intimately acquainted with the accused could have had access to his home and either personally observed the Jewish rites or lied about them, having knowledge of the layout of the home and of the accused's habits and routines. Notice also the actual crimes themselves: burning candles, cooking on Friday, keeping a kosher kitchen, wearing a clean shirt, and eating forbidden food. For these so-called 'crimes' the Roman Catholic Church judged this man, and countless other men and women like him, worthy of death by fire. The reader need ask, 'Who is the true blasphemer and heretic?'

The records indicate that the sentence to burn Mr. Gonzalez was 'carried out in the auto-de-fe held in the Town Square.' Notice the perverse 'act of faith' was held in the agora or marketplace, another proof as to the accuser's identity (Rev. 12: 10). Sadly, Mr. Beinart informs us "it was even common practice to have children bring about their parents' condemnation by serving as witnesses for the prosecution."<sup>[6]</sup> Thus, we have another obvious fulfillment of Jesus' prophecy spoken in Matt. 10:21.

A COMPARISON OF THE ANTI-SEMITIC DECREES OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH AND THE ANTI-SEMITIC LAWS OF NAZI GERMANY

PERSECUTION AND EXTERMINATION: PAST AND PRESENT WHAT THESE SIGNS MEAN FOR US TODAY THE SPIRIT OF ANTICHRIST ALIVE AND WELL

By now the alert reader should have come to the horrific knowledge that persecution and extermination of a people is no new thing. At least not for professing 'Christianity.' In the Middle Ages, the extermination was directed primarily at the Lord's saints by the ruthless actions of the 'Christian' Catholic Church. Those persecuted sects were given many and sundry names: Albigenses, Waldenses, Patarine, etc. All these innocents were orthodox Bible believers, not the heretics the Church of Rome claimed them to be. Jews were also fodder for persecution, as were the Muslim people who dared live in the Holy Land. This same spirit of destruction reared its hideous head this century in two world wars and the Jewish Holocaust. The Holocaust is particularly troubling on several accounts:

- The nature of the crime. Innocent, defenseless, men, women, and children were chosen as scapegoats and marked for slavery and extinction.
- Documentary film footage, eyewitness testimony, museums and motion pictures graphically depict that which is unimaginable to those of us who never experienced its horrors. Thus, we are more easily drawn into its awful reality. More so than the depravity of the Middle Ages, which for most is unknown and hidden.
- These crimes against humanity happened in an age of unprecedented 'enlightenment' and scientific achievements.
- These atrocities were caused by a Christian people in the Land of Luther, an admittedly imperfect hero, who courageously spearheaded the Reformation against the tyranny of the Papal Antichrist and his Babylonian Church.

THE SIGNIFICANT FACT THAT TWO WORLD WARS AND THE JEWISH HOLOCAUST WERE PERPETRATED BY GERMAN CHRISTIANS

Had a pagan, heathen, atheist nation initiated World War I, World War II, and the destruction of the European Jews, Gypsies, etc., etc., we could perhaps understand the brutality, lack of compassion and thirst for power and dominion. We in the West might have attributed the depraved actions of a Middle Eastern country and its dictator committing these kinds of crimes to the worship of false gods in a weird culture. But this was not the case with the German nation. Germany was, and has been for over 1,000 years, 'Christian,' composed of Roman Catholics and Protestants (primarily Lutheran, of course). The same spirit of Antichrist which drove the Inquisition and Crusades in the Middle Ages drove the German nation into two world wars and the Jewish Holocaust. Compare their fruit. It is exactly the same. Extermination then, extermination now. That wicked mystery of iniquity, posing as Christianity, is still present. Subdued, but present nonetheless.

THE HISTORY OF GERMANY PROVES THE DECLINE OF THE VISIBLE PROFESSING CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Think for a moment. In a span of 400 years Germany slid from forerunner of Christian truth, spiritual freedom, and eternal life in Christ, to forerunner of Satanic lies, spiritual bondage, and eternal death in the Devil. If ever a Christian Church has come under the wrath of God it is the German Christian Churches, composed of Roman Catholics and Protestants. Without the willing support of 'Christian' men and women, Roman Catholic and Protestant, Hitler could not have accomplished as much as he did. His army, navy, and air force were comprised of 'Christian' men who willingly obeyed their leaders. His secret police and the Nazi party were entirely 'Christian' organizations. Of course, true Christians do not seek dominion and destruction of the world and its inhabitants. True Christians obey the precepts of their Lord, who preached non-violence and a Kingdom which is not of this earth. Had true believers comprised the majority of Christians residing in Germany, the chances are greater that these evils would never have occurred. But that they did occur proves the wheat is in the minority, while the tares reign.

THE TARES WERE THE PERPETRATORS OF THE WAR CRIMES THE TRUE CHRISTIANS DID NOT PARTICIPATE IN THE ATROCITIES INSTEAD, THEY WERE FAVORERS, HIDERS, AND CONCEALERS OF THE JEWS

DETECTION OF THOSE WHO HID JEWS MEANT CERTAIN DEATH

The accounts of those who hid, fed and protected the Jews, despite potential harm to themselves and their families, are numerous. Both Protestants and Roman Catholics throughout Europe refused to capitulate to the Nazis' demands to betray their Jewish neighbors, friends and strangers. Southern France, the area hit hard by those crusades called by the Pontiff to exterminate Christian Albigenses in the early 13th century, was particularly active in saving Jewish children during the second world war. This Protestant stronghold has been in continuous existence since the Middle Ages and retains, to this day, a strong biblical and godly presence.<sup>[13]</sup>

THE SIGNIFICANT FACT THAT HITLER WAS BAPTIZED AND CONFIRMED ROMAN CATHOLIC

MANIFEST PROOF THAT THE MARK OF THE BEAST IS GIVEN BY THE CATHOLIC CHURCH AND WHAT EVILS THOSE WHO TAKE THAT MARK ARE CAPABLE OF COMMITTING

The Roman Catholic Church admits to Adolf being from their spiritual family:

"Adolf received the Sacrament of Confirmation in 1904...."<sup>[14]</sup>

This fact is extremely significant. In order for little Adolf to be eligible for Confirmation, he had to have received the Sacrament of Holy Baptism.<sup>[15]</sup> We have already discussed, in depth, the claims of the Catholic Church regarding these two sacraments. Both of these, in addition to the Sacrament of Holy Orders, are the only sacraments which imprint an indelible 'character' or 'mark' on the soul. A mark which can never be repeated or extinguished. This mark is imprinted by the right hand of the priest or bishop when it is placed upon the recipient's forehead, and signs the sign of the cross. We have shown how the official Latin Council of Trent text explaining this doctrine utilizes the exact same Latin word we read in the Latin Vulgate translation of the Bible in the passage: the mark of the beast. Both the words 'mark' and 'character' are translated characterem. The odds of this being mere chance is impossible.

The Catholic Church claims their baptism regenerates the baby, via the Holy Water imbued with the Spirit of God, to the status of Christian, cleansing the child of original sin. The Sacrament of Confirmation has an even greater effect on the soul, says the Church of Rome:

"Like Baptism, Confirmation imprints a character.....it imprints an indelible mark on the soul.....this character is a spiritual power ordained to sacred acts, to acts of Christian cult." [16]

By receiving Confirmation and its mark, the recipient is empowered to defend and propagate the Holy Faith. This would appear to be a true statement. Der Fuhrer propagated the same 'holy' faith sown by the popes of the Middle Ages: world domination, dictatorial tyranny, persecution, terror, confiscation of property, and extermination. These same popes supposedly had the added 'benefit' of having received all three sacraments which confer the mark of the Beast, a 'triple-anointing' or 'dose', if you will. Yet their poisonous fruit and the fruit of Roman Catholic Adolf Hitler was identical, coming from the same corrupt tree. However, it is the popes who will receive the greater damnation for committing their vile acts in the name and service of the Lord Jesus Christ, as his 'vicar.' Not even Hitler claimed that.

Think for a moment. If the reader had to name three of the most despicable historical figures of all time, would not two of them be Judas Iscariot and Adolf Hitler? Judas, as we have proved, is a type of the Man of Sin, son of perdition, Antichrist, who claims to be a Christian bishop, but is instead the archenemy of Christ and His people. Adolf Hitler, a harlot son of the Catholic Babylonian Church, received two of the three sacraments which imprint the mark of the Beast, Antichrist. What do these facts tell the reader? Certainly they confirm that Hitler, like the popes of the Middle Ages, was of the spirit of Antichrist, the spirit of destruction. If anyone in history received the mark of the Beast it was Adolf Hitler, whose works are not hid from this generation, as the works of the popes have been. That mark emanated from the Roman Catholic Church, as she admits in her authoritative documents. If those who take the mark of the Beast are potentially capable of the evils committed by Hitler, his followers, the popes and their followers, we should constantly be on guard watching the Church of Rome's hierarchy and her faithful. We must separate from the Whore and the Beast, refusing to follow the advice of the ecumenical leadership to the contrary. And shouldn't we be warning and calling people out of her for the sake of their eternal souls?

The still skeptical reader needs more proof, however. He is still not satisfied. Perhaps the fact that Hitler was a Roman Catholic who received the indelible marks of the Church on his forehead, and who then went on to devastate and destroy the world's population was a fluke, the skeptic might argue.

NEARLY ALL OF HITLER'S TOP OFFICERS WERE ROMAN CATHOLICS

Martin Bormann, Hitler's top aid and secretary, ("No one can come to the Führer but through me!") was Roman Catholic.<sup>[17]</sup> Joseph Goebbels, Hitler's Minister of Propaganda, ("We are enemies of the Jews because we are fighters for the freedom of the German people"), was Roman Catholic.<sup>[18]</sup> Hermann Göring, Hitler's designated successor, commander of the Secret State Police, and supreme commander of the Luftwaffe, ("I decide who's a Jew!"), was Roman Catholic.<sup>[19]</sup> Heinrich Himmler, Reichsführer-SS, and chief of the German Police force, ("If the annihilation were not terrible and so frightful for us, then we would not be Germans"), was Roman Catholic.<sup>[20]</sup> Rudolf Hoss, Auschwitz concentration camp commander, 'received a strict Catholic upbringing.'<sup>[21]</sup> Josef Mengele, inhuman physician, and cruel experimenter on twins at Auschwitz, was raised in a devout Roman Catholic household.<sup>[22]</sup>

Not all of Hitler's Henchmen were Roman Catholic. Adolf Eichmann, for example, was raised in a 'stern, deeply devout.....Evangelical.....austere and loveless household.....(admitting) so extreme a hostility to the religion in which he had been raised.....he refused taking the oath on a Bible in court."<sup>[23]</sup> Rudolf Hess, Hitler's Deputy, was confirmed in the Protestant Church, but did not attend services.<sup>[24]</sup>

THE RESOUNDING SILENCE OF PIUS XII. DURING HOLOCAUST PROVES HE IS ANTICHRIST

"No memory of World War II haunts the Vatican more than the silence of Pope Pius XII. during Hitler's murder of 6 million Jews."<sup>[25]</sup>

Admittedly there is a time to be silent. We are admonished not to give what is holy to dogs or cast pearls before swine. Jesus remained silent when asked by Pilate, the dog, 'What is truth?' However, on the other hand, maintaining silence in situations which demand correction quickly escalates to complicity. If Jesus had remained silent regarding the Pharisees innumerable flaws and heresies, He would not have been crucified. His Matt. 23 diatribe was the last straw. As Christians we are not called to be silent when evil is committed against our neighbor. We are to be salt, light and Good Samaritans. Pius XII. was neither. Rather, his posture reflected that of the priest and Levite who saw his neighbor in distress, half dead, choosing to pass by on the other side, ignoring him. Several excellent books have been written documenting, in great detail, proof that Pius knew perfectly well that a Nazi-inspired Holocaust against Jews was taking place, yet said and did nothing.<sup>[26]</sup> Falsely claiming to have divine-inspiration in the areas of faith and morals, the fact of the Pope's silence is damning to his boastful allegation to being both Head of the Christian Church on earth and Vicar of Jesus Christ. Rather, the Pontiff's silence points to his faithlessness, and lack of moral acuity, not to mention complicity to evil as the Antichrist who fraudulently comes in the name and authority of Christ.

"Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand: And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself;. how shall then his kingdom stand?" [27]

If Roman Catholic Adolf Hitler was of the spirit of Antichrist, as the evidence clearly shows he was, then he was going about the business of his father, the devil. A large part of Hitler's 'ministry' consisted of the setting up of Satan's kingdom on earth, by force. Jesus Christ has given us an infallible principle in Matt. 12, one we need take to heart: Satan will never cast out Satan. It is counter-productive to his aims, and would eventually result in his kingdom's fall. Therefore, we may infer a very large truth from that fact: If the Pope is Antichrist, the vicar of Satan, he would not cast out Satan, his Master. Nor would he divide Satan's kingdom, the Beast himself being the ruler of it on earth. Thus, it would leave the Pope with no other alternative but to remain silent. Think for a moment. Silence is acquiescence. If the Pope had used the several tools at his disposal - interdicts, excommunication, anathemas, papal bulls, encyclicals, etc. - he would have divided Satan's kingdom: i.e., Catholic Germany, Catholic Poland, Catholic Austria, Catholic France, etc. A significant proportion of the European Catholic faithful would have heeded his command, as the Holy Father, to stop the killings of the innocent, which would have brought confusion, disloyalty and division in the Nazi ranks. If, on the other hand, he had publicly, enthusiastically agreed to the genocide as being the expedient method of setting up 'God's Kingdom' on earth, commanding his son, Adolf, for his glorious successes, he would have been exposed worldwide as the murderer and Antichrist that he really is. Therefore, silence was the only way out.

ANOTHER IMPORTANT TRUTH IS REVEALED IN MATT. 12:
EVANGELIC LEADERS WHO DO NOT EXPOSE THE PAPACY AND HARLOT CHURCH AS THE ENEMIES OF THE GOSPEL AND DESTROYERS OF CHRISTIANITY ARE THEMSELVES WORKING FOR THE SUCCESS OF SATAN'S KINGDOM

IF THESE LEADER'S ARE CHRIST'S, THEY WILL REPENT WHEN REBUKED FOR THEIR ERRORS

IF THEY ARE NOT CHRIST'S, THEY WILL MAINTAIN THEIR WICKED TESTIMONY:
TESTIMONY WHICH DECLARES THE MAN OF SIN TO BE THE MAN OF GOD
TESTIMONY WHICH DECLARES THE MOTHER OF ALL HARLOTS TO BE ORTHODOX CHRISTIANITY

CHRIST WILL NOT DIVIDE HIMSELF, NOR WILL HIS HOLY GHOST TESTIMONY CONTRADICT ITSELF

Again, we must use common sense. If Satan will not divide himself, certainly the greater, Jesus Christ, will not divide Himself. The division Christ promises to bring, (Luke 12:51), is a division which results in the separation of professing Christianity into two groups: the goats, also called tares, and the sheep, also known as wheat. By knowing who the enemy is, the wheat can separate from the chaff, the sheep can separate from the goats' fold. Thus, the division Christ promises to the professing, visible family of God, the Church, is one whose intent is to separate His true Church from the Mother and Harlot churches, with the result of uniting, not dividing, true believers.

One of the focuses of this book has been to expose the apparent contradictory testimonies of today's evangelic leaders compared with the testimony of the saints and martyrs over the centuries. The contradiction exists only on the part of today's evangelicals. We have demonstrated the united testimony against the Church of Rome and her Popes. We have shown the damning evidence through the public facts of history, including public, factual documentation from the Roman Catholic Church herself. We have based our conclusions on the inerrant, infallible Word of God and the prophecy contained therein which we have proven is realized in the Church of Rome and her Pontiff.

If there is a reader who supposes that today's greatest evangelical leaders have not been warned of their pro-papal stand, think again. All have been warned, all have acknowledged being warned, yet none have repented and none have reversed their testimony to fall back into line with the Word of God.

But still there are skeptics. Unbelievers who refuse to acknowledge the Roman Church's guilt.

"There was an escape route known as the Rat Line, and it moved through monasteries and convents in which the [Nazi] fugitives were kept until they could board a boat to [Roman Catholic] South America. The Rat Line was started out of the Vatican where the fugitives were given a Red Cross or a Vatican passport with false name, to [enable them] to escape from Europe to South America."<sup>[28]</sup>

"The Catholic Church set up a massive relief effort for millions of Catholics fleeing from Eastern Europe, regardless of their role in the war. Many hundreds, if not thousands, of Nazi war criminals were filtered through this system. There were anti-Communist factions within the Catholic Church that sympathized with Nazis.....[Adolf] Eichmann used the Rat Line through the Vatican to receive a falsified passport in the name of Ricardo Clement. Then in 1950, [he] reportedly boarded a freighter in Genoa [Italy] bound for [Roman Catholic] Argentina."<sup>[29]</sup>

The same TNT presentation revealed the Vatican's involvement in the escape of Angel of Death, Josef Mengele: he was given an Italian passport, its credentials claimed him to be a mechanic from Northern Italy.

As recently as 1989, war criminals were being sequestered in Roman Catholic monasteries and convents. The New York Times reported the case of Roman Catholic French Nazi Collaborator and executioner, Paul Touvier. He had found shelter in their monasteries, shuttling from monastery to convent, eluding capture for nearly 1½ years.<sup>[30]</sup> The Times also reported that "his arrest seemed to refocus attention on the intimate collaboration between the French Roman Catholic hierarchy and the Vichy authorities during the Nazi occupation."<sup>[31]</sup>

Is the skeptical reader yet to be convinced, beyond a reasonable doubt, of the Roman Catholic Church's guilt? Then read the conclusion for a shocking revelation.
