

Part 2: Robbing God of Honor and Glory

Unwittingly, those who claim God foresaw their future faith, and based upon this knowledge, elected them to salvation have, in essence, claimed some of the glory and honor for meriting their election.

Many professing Christians would never admit to robbing glory and honor which belongs to God alone. They realize such testimony is anti-Christian due to the many Scriptures which insist on giving God His due.

*....For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever.
Amen (Matt. 6:13).*

that all may honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him (John 5:23).

The converse of this verse is "whoever does not honor the Father, does not honor the Son."

As Christians we seek to honor the Father and the Son, as well as give all glory to God for our salvation.

Scripture plainly states, I am the LORD: that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another (Isaiah 42:8).

God's honor and glory is diminished when it is given and shared with another.

To diminish God in any way is a form of hatred and exalted pride in oneself.

Is that not the sin of Satan (Isaiah 14)?

I cannot and will not ever take credit for my salvation; not even a small portion, since I had nothing of merit to offer God which could possibly gain His favor.
